Frequently Asked Questions

1. Do the people participating in End-to-End have to be a member of our church or any church or ministry?

Not at all. End-to-End is a gospel outreach program, so ideally it is for people who are not yet Christ-followers. Church members are certainly welcomed and may use this as an opportunity to bring a family member, neighbor, friend, or other person to watch a gospel film, join an audio-Bible listening group, and more.

2. If a person misses step one (watch a gospel film), can they join in on step two?

Yes, however, step one gives people who are not familiar with the gospel a brief but comprehensive overview of its content and includes an important moment when individuals have an opportunity to respond to the gospel message. This step is highly recommended and can be revisited even at a later time.

3. How many people should be in an audio-Bible listening group?

It is advised that groups be no smaller than ten people and as large as twenty, on average.

4. Can step two (join an audio-Bible listening group) take place anywhere (e.g. community center or home), or does it have to be in a church?

Audio-Bible listening groups can take place anywhere, including the church, a community meeting place or at someone's home.

5. How long should the audio-Bible listening groups last when meeting?

Audio-Bible listening group duration will be dependent on how the group structures this. In our experience, groups meet for 90-minutes to two hours, in each case giving equal time for listening and discussing the three reflecting questions. For example, if meeting for 90-minutes, 45 minutes will be listening and 45 minutes will be for reflecting and discussion of the questions.

6. How many weeks does step two (join an audio-Bible listening group) take?

This will be dependent on the duration chosen for each meeting and the frequency of meeting (i.e., once/week or twice/week). On average groups have completed listening to/discussing the New Testament when meeting once weekly, somewhere between 18-24 weeks, when gathering for two hours per meeting.

7. If we choose to use Faith Comes By Hearing's audio-Bible Proclaimers© listening device, how would we get them?

Simply go to the End-to-End website, www.endtoend.bible, and make your request using the "Contact us" form, and your device will be sent to you at the shipping address you provide.

8. How would we access the gift Bibles and certificates?

American Bible Society is pleased to freely provide a King James or New King James Bible to each participant who completes at least 60% of the New Testament Audio-Bible listening group sessions. Each participating church or ministry will keep track of this and alert ABS by email to Delores Burnett at dburnett@americanbible.org of those who meet this requirement. To honor this accomplishment, feel free to utilize the ABS' template Certificate of Completion found at www.endtoend.bible or feel free to use your own.
